HUNTINGTON, W. VA., FRIDAY, October, 7, 1920

NO. 1

Students Assembly Thursday

Student assembly was held on Thursday morning instead of on Friday last week for the purpose of sending of the football players who played at West Point last Saturday.

Mr. Clyde Bonar, president of the Athletic Association, was in charge of the meeting.

Mr. Alonzo Huffman appealed to the students to subscribe for The Parthenon, and get all the athletic news.

Mr. Erville Sowards announced the program for the afternoon, which was, that all the students would meet at the fourth avenue entrance, to Marshall at 5 P.M. and go to the C. & O. station to give the foot-ball team a good send off.

Mr. Louis Gilmore was elected Song Leader, and several songs were sung in a most enthusiastic manner.

Mr. Harols McKnight was elected Cheer Leader. After the election Mr. McKnight was given an opportunity to show his ability as a Cheer Leader; this he did in a most commendable manner.

This meeting was filled with enthusiasm, and the bell for eleven o'clock classes rang all too soon.

Meeting of Classical M. H. F.

September 25th was the first of the "Third Saturdays" for the Classical Association this year. On the heights of Mt. Olympus (or the top of the Model School stairs hundreds--well, at least a goodly throng) of Classical inclined joy-seekers gathered for the beginning of a wonderful year of Third Saturdays, in each of the coming nine months.

Miss Pritchard, ever cheering and adored, presided in her usual way, and the new President, Elsid Falwell, was both charming and romantic (that is a pun) wears this, her latest crown, most gracefully. Many things were discussed, membership, food, goddesses and dishwashing. A special committee was appointed to supply entertainment at the next meeting, and an equally special committee was commanded to bring forth Food and - - - some one ever wiser, and much more dependable than the Little Bird has taken us aside and whispered in our ear that to arrive early would be advantageous, for both committees are working at their allotted tasks, and each is doing its best to do better, so much better than the other; therefore all you who have, for one year, been Studios Students of Latin or Greek remind yourselves of the Third Saturday of this month of October, and hasten up the stairs that lead to Classical and Oh Joy.

For the first time in its history, Marshall College is now a degree-conferring institution. This marks the beginning of a long period of progress for our school. Since the student activities form an important part of the school, there falls upon each activity a new obligation, namely: to raise its standards.

Each member of the Parthenon staff realizes that he must do his parts in order that the Parthenon may live up to the new standards of the school. The staff will do all that they can to make The Parthenon a better paper.

But the staff can not supply all the needs of The Parthenon. Just at present the most urgent needs of The Parthenon is news. The members of the staff will acquire all the news that they can, but there are many things happening each day at Marshall College, which would be of interest to the readers of The Parthenon, but which never find their way to its columns. The only way that the Parthenon can obtain the news is through the assistance of the student body. News may be handed to any member of the staff, or placed in the Parthenon box, which will be placed in the hall as soon as possible. It is plainly your duty to do all that you can to help The Parthenon, for it is your paper, published for you, and in the interest of your school.

Sophomores Elect Officers; Doris Harpold President

On last Friday the sophomores held their first class meeting of the year. About thirty members were present, and they were all enthusiastic members. The meeting was called to order by Jay Booth, who was president of the class during its freshman year. The chief business of the meeting was the election of officers, which was at once held with the following results;

|                |                   |
|----------------|-------------------|
| President      | Doris Harpold     |
| Vice-President | Lorena Hutchinson |
| Secretary      | Allie Armstrong   |
| Treasurer      | Jay Booth         |
| C. G. A. C.    | Russel Morris     |

At this point in the election the class adjourned, leaving the election of the chairman for the other committees until a future date. The class showed lots of pep, and with the start that they have, they will break the record that they made for themselves last year, which was a good one.

New Kitchenette

The new kitchenette is one of the delights and conveniences acquired by the dormitory since the president's former apartments have been converted into a new suite. The bright, new, gas range and oven, a sink with hot water and cold water, an immaculate, enamel top table, the furnished cupboard, make an irresistible appeal to the culinary minded. The girls have access to this paradise every evening after study period, and the entire evenings on week-ends. We prophesy that this will be the most popular retreat in College Hall.

The kitchenette was dedicated last Saturday night when choicest receipts were brought forth for the first fudge party of the year. There were eight in the party, only one of whom was an "old girl."

This is a favorable indication that the new girls are becoming "sweet" and happy among us, and that those "Homesickness Blues" are vanishing.

Any way you look at it

Boys Given Good Send-off

Last Thursday afternoon, in accordance with the plans outlined at the student meeting held Thursday morning, the boys who were leaving to play West Point were given a rousing send-off. About 100 loyal Marshall students were gathered at the appointed time, and the interval between that time and the departure of the train was filled in with yells and songs. Harold McKnight, who was elected Cheer Leader at the student meeting Thursday morning, led the cheers. There was much enthusiasm, which kept the crowd yelling until the boys had boarded their car and started to meet the West Point team, feeling that they could put up a better fight because they knew that the whole school was behind them.

Big Pep Meeting

Last Tuesday evening, from 6:45 until 7:30, a big meeting was held in the ravine east of the dorm. The purpose of this meeting was to celebrate the fight that our boys made at West Point Saturday, when they held the much heavier West Point team, allowing them to score only 38 points.

Coach Cramer was the first speaker, he said that he was proud of the spirit of the school, the spirit that gave the boys the send-off that they had, and of the spirit and the fight of the team. Following this, each of the football men who was on the trip and present at the meeting was called upon for talk. They told some mighty good jokes on one another, and in this manner added much to the merriment and the enthusiasm of the occasion. Each player was given a rousing cheer as he was called on by McKnight, who led the cheers.

Seniors Organize

Garry Eckard Elected President.

The small but energetic Senior class, the first real college Senior class within the halls of old Marshall, was the first to organize and get started in the year's work. On September 17th the class met and elected the following officers:

|               |                    |
|---------------|--------------------|
| President     | Garry Eckard       |
| Vice Pres.    | Ivan Hollandsworth |
| Sec. & Treas. | Erville Sowards    |

W. N. Frasure, the remaining member of the class, is so far unburdened with any official responsibility, but it is thought that he may be led to accept the chairmanship of some standing committee and thus give each of the four members some influential position.

Although the Seniors are few in number, they have a large share of the important offices among the student organizations and wield a great influence on students activities.

Marshall Eleven and High Boys Scrimmage

The Big Green gridders were given a chance to let themselves out last Wednesday when Coach Wilson brought his husky High School eleven to Marshall field for a scrimmage. The High School eleven weighs in an average of 165 pounds, and so afforded a strong opposition to Cramer's boys. The time was divided, and each team given a chance to do its worst in carrying the ball.

Followers of the Big Green were well pleased with the showing made by that eleven. Despite the fact that Marshall has an unusually light squad, they are already developing a high class brand of football under the careful leadership of Coach Cramer.

Wednesday's battle made it plain to the local fans that Kentucky Heslegan will find the Big Green men no easy mark when the two teams clash next Saturday.
